Mission of Providence Wesleyan Church

The Mission of Providence Wesleyan Church is to fulfill the Great Commission by helping people discover they are “Here on Purpose.”

Romans 15:13 (NIV) says, “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.” Paul’s words were true then as they are now. We are still in a COVID-19 era, but there is hope for tomorrow. There has been the development and distribution of a vaccine since our last small groups this past Fall. We are not only blessed as a nation, but we are even more blessed as a church family. We have seen many new people walk through PWC’s doors in the recent months which is a testimony that the risen Lord is still alive and active in the lives of many. It is my desire that you continue to pursue our Lord with great passion and vigor as we embark on a new year and season of life.

Jesus. The God Who Knows.

Teacher: Pastor Karen

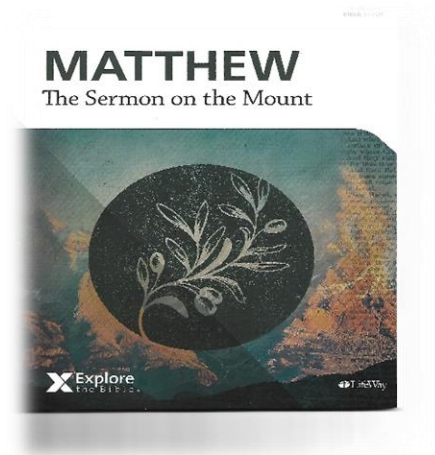

Day and Time: Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m.

Start Date: February 16, 2021

Description: For thirty-three years Jesus felt everything that we have ever felt: weakness, weariness, and rejections. His feelings got hurt. His feet grew tired. His head ached. To think of Jesus in such terms seems irreverent. It is much easier to keep humanity out of the incarnation. Clean up the manure from around the manger.

Pretend he never snored or hit his thumb with a hammer. As Max Lucado reveals in this study, because Jesus became human, it is now possible for us to see God and hear his voice. If we want to know what matters to God, all we need to do is look in the Bible to see what matters to Jesus . . .
